Head Coaching Debut: October 16, 2015 vs. Rapid City Rush (ECHL, 5-1 W)

AHL Coaching Debut: December 11, 2019 vs. Manitoba Moose (3-1 W)

Neil Graham was promoted to head coach of the Texas Stars on December 10, 2019 to fill the vacancy left by Derek Laxdal who was promoted to assistant coach of the Dallas Stars the same day. The following night he earned his first win as the head coach of the Stars, a 3-1 victory over Manitoba. He went on to finish the shortened season with an 18-15-2-2 record at the helm. Graham was previously hired as assistant coach of the Stars on July 8, 2019, joining the team for his first stint of coaching at the American Hockey League level.

Graham, 36, entered his second season with the Stars in 2020-21 and navigated a group that finished the year as the AHL's third lowest penalized team and among the top-five teams in power play goals (28). The club also housed two of the league's top-10 scorers (Riley Damiani & Adam Mascherin) including AHL Rookie of the Year honors for Damiani. During the shortened 2019-20 season, Graham navigated the club to a sixth place position in the Central Division just before the COVID-19 shutdown. The club's top scorer, Jason Robertson, finished fifth among all rookies in the league and the team produced their best stretch of the year (7-1-1-0) during his coaching take-over in December and January.

Before making the move to Cedar Park, Texas, he served as head coach of the Idaho Steelheads, the ECHL affiliate of the Dallas Stars, from 2015 to 2019. Over that span, he amassed a 166-91-31 record in 288 regular-season contests and led Idaho to three consecutive 40-win seasons. Graham guided the Steelheads to the Kelly Cup Playoffs in all four of his campaigns at the helm, recording a 14-20 record in 34 postseason contests. He helped continue the club's streak of qualifying for the postseason, which is the longest active postseason streak in professional hockey. Prior to being appointed head coach on Aug. 7, 2015, he held the position of assistant coach during the 2013-14 and 2014-15 seasons after serving as a player/coach in the 2012-13 campaign.

The Calgary, Alberta native is a graduate of Mercyhurst University where he played four seasons before turning pro. Graham recorded 60 points (23-37=60) and 128 penalty minutes over 137 NCAA games. He turned pro in 2010 and split three seasons between the ECHL and Southern Professional Hockey League, accruing 98 points (42-56=98) in 113 professional games.
