CHICAGO WOLVES 4-4-0-1

VS

TEXAS STARS 2-4-1-1

TONIGHT'S GAME

The Texas Stars (2-4-1-1) begin a three-game road trip tonight against the Chicago Wolves (4-4-0-1) at Allstate Arena.

Texas is coming off a series split against the Ontario Reign. The Stars battled back from a 3-1 deficit, but dropped Friday's contest 5-3, before scoring four third-period goals on their way to a 5-2 victory on Saturday. Texas will face Chicago in three of their next five games as the Wolves travel to Cedar Park on Nov. 6-7.

Chicago started their season with four straight regulation losses, and were outscored 22-5 in those games. However, the Wolves have won four of their last five games, including a 6-3 victory against Manitoba on Tuesday. Chicago has earned points in five straight games dating back to a 2-1 win over Iowa on Oct. 17.

LAST TIME OUT

The Texas Stars scored four goals in the third period Saturday to down the Ontario Reign 5-2 at the H-E-B Center at Cedar Park. The Stars lit the lamp first for the seventh time in their first eight games. Trey Taylor let go of a shot from the left wing that hit the pad of Hampton Slukynsky and deflected right to Artem Shlaine, who scored with seven minutes left in the first period. Lane Pederson tied the game eight minutes into the second period. While short-handed with six minutes gone in the third, Mike Sgarbossa rushed down the right wing and fired a wrist shot to put the Stars in front 2-1. Kyle Looft then snapped a shot from the right point off the pad of Slukynsky, and Connor Punnett raced in from the left point to bury the rebound for his first-career AHL goal. Ellis Rickwood spun past a Reign defender for a breakaway just a minute later and laced a shot into the back of the net for Texas' third goal in under five minutes. The Reign responded quickly as Pederson added a second goal 46 seconds after Rickwood's goal. Ontario pulled Slukynsky with 4:30 left and Shlaine tacked on an empty net goal for his second of the night to seal the win for Texas. Brandon Halverson made 25 saves in the victory, while Slukynsky allowed four goals on 19 shots in the loss.

PLAYER SPOTLIGHT

Texas Stars defenseman Kyle Burroughs tallied two assists on Saturday night in the Stars' 5-2 victory over Ontario. Burroughs was credited with his first helper on Mike Sgarbossa's go-ahead goal in the third period, and then earned his 98th-career AHL point on Ellis Rickwood's goal later in the final frame. The Vancouver, BC native leads all Stars defenseman with five points, after compiling seven points (1g, 6a) in 18 games with the Ontario Reign last season. The 13th-year-pro has at least a point in four of his last five games, with Saturday being his first multi-point game this season.

HEAD-TO-HEAD

Tonight marks the first of an eight-game season series between the Stars and the Wolves, as well as the first of four meetings between the teams at Allstate Arena in Rosemont. After tonight, the Stars host the Wolves next Friday and Saturday in Cedar Park. Texas returns to Chicago on Nov. 29, host the Wolves again Dec. 18-19, and travels to the Windy City two more times Feb. 13 and Feb. 28.

The two teams met eight times last season, with the Stars winning seven of the contests, including all four matchups in Cedar Park and three of the four games in Chicago. The Wolves knocked off the Stars in the best-of-five Central Division Semifinal series 3-2 on their way to the Calder Cup Finals. Texas outscored Chicago 28-21 in the season series.

SERIES HISTORY

Texas and Chicago have met 102 times in history, with the Stars holding a 59-36-4-3 advantage in the all-time series.

Additionally, the Stars carry a 28-18-4-0 home record against the Wolves at the H-E-B Center at Cedar Park and a 31-18-0-3 resume at Allstate Arena. Texas also has the upper hand in goal differential all-time, a 334-291 margin (+43).

The two teams have met twice in the Calder Cup Playoffs, clashing in the 2010 Division Finals, where Texas outlasted Chicago 6-5 in overtime of Game 7 at Allstate Arena, eventually reaching the Calder Cup Finals. Last Year the Wolves won the deciding game in the Division Semifinals at Allstate Arena, eventually reaching the Calder Cup Finals.

NEWS & NOTES

DOUBLE DEBUTS IN BIG D

Forwards Dylan Hryckowian and Matthew Seminoff made their NHL debuts for the Dallas Stars on Sunday afternoon against the New York Islanders. The last time two Texas Stars were called up and made their NHL debuts in the same game was Oct. 5, 2019, when Rhett Gardner and Nick Caamano suited up for the big club against the St. Louis Blues.

In Dallas' lineup on Sunday 12 of the 20 players who dressed spent time in Cedar Park earlier in their careers. That includes Justin Hryckowian who won the Dudley (Red) Garrett Memorial Award as the AHL's Most Outstanding Rookie in the 2024-25 season.

Jamie Benn played all 82 games for the Dallas Stars in the 2009-10 season, before suiting up for all 24 playoff games in Texas' run to the Calder Cup Finals. Roope Hintz, Jake Oettinger, and Jason Robertson are some other former Texas Stars now playing in Dallas.

FOUR IN THE FINAL FRAME

The third period had been a struggle for Texas entering the team's series finale with Ontario last Saturday. In their first seven contests, the Stars were outscored 15-7 in the final stanza. Last Saturday night, Texas scored four third-period goals on its way to a 5-2 win against the Reign. It was a season-high for the Stars for goals in one period as Mike Sgarbossa, Connor Punnett, Ellis Rickwood, and Artem Shlaine all lit the lamp in the final frame.

Entering the third tied 1-1, Texas scored three goals in a span of 5:06. Sgarbossa tallied the Stars first short-handed goal of the season, Punnett notched his first AHL goal to make it 3-1, and Rickwood extended his point streak to three games with his second goal of the season. Shlaine tacked on a short-handed, empty-net goal later in the third to complete the triumph.

SEVEN SUCCESSFUL AND SNIPING SHORTIES

Texas killed off all seven Ontario power plays and scored two short-handed goals last Saturday night in a 5-2 victory. The Stars denied all three Ontario man-advantages in the first period, which came within an 11-minute span. Texas then killed a fourth penalty in the second frame, and three more in the final stanza. Mike Sgarbossa scored the Stars first short-handed goal of the season early in the third period, and Artem Shlaine hit the empty net to seal the win while the Stars were down a skater in the waning minutes.

The last time the Stars went 7-for-7 on the penalty kill in a single game was two seasons ago on Mar. 21, 2025. Texas shut out the Chicago Wolves 3-0 behind a 43-save performance from Remi Poirier. In that contest, the teams combined for 69 penalty minutes.

Texas' two markers against the Reign tied a franchise record for short-handed goals in a game. It was also just the eighth time in team history that the feat had been acomplished. The last time the Stars tallied two goals in a game while down a skater was on Mar. 11, 2023 at Coachella Valley as Riley Tufte and Thomas Harley each lit the lamp just 1:14 apart. The last time Texas scored two short-handed markers in a game at home was Mar. 8, 2017 vs Grand Rapids.

ON THIS DATE IN HISTORY

Oct. 31, 2009

On this date in 2009, the Texas Stars defeated the Chicago Wolves, 4-1, at Cedar Park Center in the first-ever meeting between the two teams.

The Stars got off to an early lead, as Perttu Lindgren found the back of the net in 14:47 into the opening frame with help from Colton Sceviour. Just over a minute later, Francis Wathier doubled Texas' lead, assisted by Aaron Gagnon and current Stars' Assistant Coach Maxime Fortunus. Landon Wilson punctuated the end of the first period with another goal for the Stars. Wilson added his second of the night to bring the Stars lead to 4-0 at the end of the middle frame. Chicago got on the board with 5:58 left in regulation, but the deficit was too great to overcome. Brent Krahn made 29 saves in the win, Manny Legace allowed four goals on 18 shots in the loss, and Texas skated off with its first-ever win over the Wolves on home ice.

DALLAS STARS NOTEBOOK

RECORD: 7-5-1 (15 pts), T-3rd Central Division

LAST GAME (Thurs.): vs. Montreal Canadiens (L 5-2)

The Dallas Stars were defeated 5-2 by the Montreal Canadiens on Thursday night at American Airlines Center.

Cole Caufield opened the scoring for Montreal seven minutes into the first period. Wyatt Johnston tied the game five minutes later on the power play with his third goal of the season. Montreal lit the lamp twice in a span of 27 seconds at the end of the first period. Alex Newhook put Montreal back in front, and then Caufield scored his second of the game 27 seconds later. Newhook tallied his second goal of the night six minutes into the middle frame. Jamie Benn cut the score to 4-2 two minutes later with his second goal of the season. Dallas pulled Jake Oettinger for an extra skater and Phillip Danault hit the empty net to seal the win for Montreal.

NOTABLE ALUMNI:

- Jamie Benn scored his 416th career goal in Thursday night's contest against Montreal. Benn led the Texas Stars to the Calder Cup Finals as a rookie in 2010, scoring the series-clinching overtime goal in Game Seven of the Central Division Finals against the Chicago Wolves on the way.

2026-27 COACHING STAFF

TOBY PETERSEN - Head Coach (2nd Season)

Toby Petersen was named the sixth Head Coach in Texas Stars history on July 7, 2025. With over 23 years of professional experience, both as a player and a coach in the AHL and NHL, the 2025-26 season was his first as a Head Coach. Petersen spent the last two seasons with the Colorado Avalanche as skills coach, working alongside the coaching staff and hockey operations department to maximize the development of the Avalanche and Colorado Eagles players during practices and on-ice sessions. He previously spent six seasons from 2014-20 as an assistant coach in the AHL with Springfield (2014-15), Lake Erie/Cleveland (2015-17) and Rochester (2017-20). During the 2016 Calder Cup Playoffs, Petersen helped guide the Lake Erie Monsters to a 15-2 playoff record on their way to winning the Calder Cup. In total, he has appeared in three Calder Cup Finals as a player (Wilkes-Barre/Scranton in 2001 and 2004, Texas in 2014) and one as a coach (Lake Erie in 2016), winning his last two appearances.

The Bloomington, Minnesota native played seven years in the Stars organization from 2007-14 as a member of the Dallas Stars (2007-13) and Texas Stars (2012-14). He appeared in 243 regular-season games with Dallas, totaling 40 points (17-23--40), also skating in 16 postseason games. Petersen served as an alternate captain in Texas and was part of the 2014 Calder Cup-winning team. In total, he compiled 36 points (13-2--36) in 108 regular-season games for the AHL's Stars, also appearing in 16 playoff contests. Originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Penguins in the ninth round (244th overall) of the 1998 NHL Draft, Petersen registered 81 points (33-48--81) and skated in 398 NHL regular-season games for three teams (Pittsburgh, Edmonton and Dallas). He also skated in 18 Stanley Cup Playoff games and scored one goal. In 550 career regular-season AHL contests with four teams (Texas, Iowa, Edmonton and Wilkes-Barre/Scranton), Petersen recorded 374 points (148-226—374), adding 36 points (12-24--36) in 71 Calder Cup Playoff games.

Prior to turning pro, Petersen played four seasons at Colorado College from 1996-00, where he earned a degree in psychology. Internationally, he represented the United States at the 1997 and 1998 IIHF World Junior Championship, winning a silver medal in 1997, and he later represented the U.S. Men's National Team at the 2007 World Championship.

TRAVIS MORIN - Assistant Coach (8th Season)

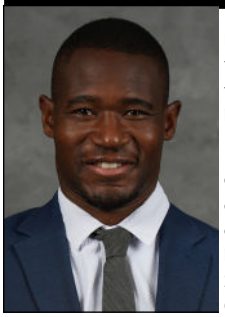

Travis Morin is in his eighth season on the Texas Stars bench, after he was promoted to Assistant Coach on December 10, 2019. He previously served as the team's Skills Coach and Director of Business Development during the shortened 2019-20 season, before joining the bench staff. Morin stepped in for then Head Coach Neil Graham for two games and recorded a win in his debut commanding the bench, a 5-4 victory against Colorado on March 10, 2020.

Morin, 42, ended his playing career following the 2018-19 season, after 10 years with the Stars organization and 12 professional seasons overall. Morin retired as the Stars franchise leader in points (560), goals (175), assists (385), and games played (686). On Oct. 19, 2019, he became the first player in team history to have his jersey number (#23) retired. His 686 games played with the Stars are the most by any AHL player with one organization since 1974. The Brooklyn Park, Minnesota native captained the team during the 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, was a four-time AHL All-Star, and led the Stars in scoring across five of his 10 seasons. He was a focal point of Texas' 2014 Calder Cup Championship season, capturing the Les Cunningham Award (AHL MVP), John B. Sollenberger Award (Regular Season Scoring Leader), and Jack A. Butterfield Award (Calder Cup Playoff MVP) that season.

Morin is a graduate of Minnesota State University, Mankato where he played all four years before turning pro in 2007. Across 151 games at his alma mater, Morin recorded 133 points (58-75--133) and served as team captain in his senior season of 2006-07. Before joining the Stars, he also played for the ECHL's South Carolina Stingrays and AHL's Hershey Bears from 2007 to 2009.

MAX FORTUNUS - Assistant Coach (6th Season)

Max Fortunus is in his sixth season as Assistant Coach of the Texas Stars, after he was named to the staff on May 20, 2021. The former Stars defenseman returned to Cedar Park following a 17-year playing career that spanned more than 1,100 regular season games in the NHL, AHL, DEL, and ECHL. Six of those seasons were spent in Texas, including a three-year stint as Captain. Fortunus, 43, previously spent his final three playing seasons with Fischtown of the Deutsche Eishockey Liga (DEL), Germany's top professional hockey league. He recorded 50 points (7-43--50) in 139 career DEL games with Fischtown, serving as an Assistant Captain for all three seasons with the club from 2018-21.

Fortunus spent 15 seasons in the AHL where he amassed 286 points (76-210--286) in 882 career games with Houston, Manitoba, Texas, Iowa, and Springfield. The former defenseman recorded 167 points (44-123--167) in 402 career games with Texas over six seasons from 2009-15. Fortunus was named an assistant captain for the 2011-12 campaign before serving as Texas' captain from 2012-15. He ranks fourth in Texas Stars history in games played (402), fifth in assists (123), and sixth in points (167), leading all club defensemen in each category. Fortunus made 10 trips to the Calder Cup Playoffs in his AHL career, logging 31 points (6-25--31) in 118 career AHL postseason games. Of his 10 career playoff appearances, five came with Texas, recording 15 points (2-13--15) in 63 Calder Cup Playoff games in a Texas sweater. Fortunus captained the Stars to the 2014 Calder Cup Championship, while he also reached the Calder Cup Finals in 2009 with Manitoba and again in 2010 with Texas. He was also named to the 2014-15 AHL All-Star Game.

The native of La Prairie, Quebec, appeared in nine career NHL contests with Dallas during the 2009-10 and 2013-14 seasons, recording one assist (0-1--1). Additionally, he spent parts of two seasons with Louisiana of the ECHL from 2003-05, registering 42 points (11-31--42) in 123 games. Prior to his professional debut in 2003-04, Fortunus logged 148 points (40-108--148) in 285 career games in five seasons with Baie-Comeau Drakkar of the QMJHL, earning QMJHL First All-Star Team honors and winning the Emile Bouchard Trophy as the QMJHL's Defenseman of the Year in 2002-03.

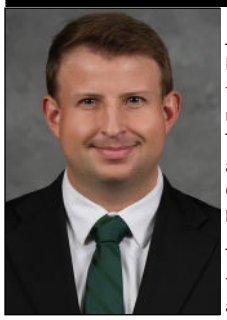

RYAN DANIELS - Goaltending Coach (6th Season)

Ryan Daniels is in his sixth season as the Goaltender Development Coach of the Texas Stars. He was hired on June 8, 2021 and has worked with several Stars goaltending prospects, including NHL All-Star Jake Oettinger. Daniels, 38, previously spent three years with the Ontario Hockey League's Guelph Storm, who captured the 2019 league championship and a spot in the 2019 Memorial Cup. He joined Guelph after three seasons as the Goaltending Coach for the Mississauga Steelheads, who won the Eastern Conference Championship in 2016-17.

Prior to his time in major juniors, Daniels was the Goaltending Coach for the Toronto Patriots of the OJHL, the back-to-back Buckland Cup OJHL champions in 2014 and 2015. Daniels was drafted by the Ottawa Senators in the fifth round in 2006 and played five seasons in the OHL for the Saginaw Spirit and Peterborough Petes, where he accumulated 85 wins in 166 games. He was also a four-year varsity goaltender for Wilfrid Laurier University, where he was a 2nd Team All-Canadian and a two-time OUA West MVP.

JOSH JOHNSON - Video Coach (4th Season)

Josh Johnson is in his fourth season as the Texas Stars Video Coach. He was hired in the summer of 2023 after spending two seasons as the Director of Hockey Operations for the University of St. Thomas men's hockey program. While at UST from 2021-23, he oversaw the Tommies' video coordination and analytics, community outreach, and travel arrangements. Johnson previously served as the Video Coordinator for Robert Morris University in 2020-21, where he handled practice and game film, video breakdown, and analytics.

The Ludington, Michigan native earned a sport management degree from the University of Michigan in 2020, where he also served as an Analytics and Video Assistant for the Wolverines men's hockey program.

2025-26

Tristan Bertucci officially began his pro career in 2025-26 as the highest-drafted Stars defenseman on Texas' opening night roster. The rookie picked up his first point, an assist, on Oct. 18, 2025 at Milwaukee and had a two-assist game Nov. 7, 2025 vs Manitoba. Bertucci scored his first pro goal Dec. 5, 2025 at San Diego and followed it up later that same night when he scored the overtime winner to complete his first two-goal game. He continued a strong month of December with a six-game assist streak from Dec. 9-27, 2025 and ended up with four different two-assist outings in the regular season. The Woodbridge, Ontario native finished third among Stars defensemen with 24 points (5g, 19a) in 63 games and ranked tied for sixth among all AHL rookie blueliners. He also played in two Calder Cup Playoff games.

CAREER NOTES

After an impressive four-year junior career in the OHL, Bertucci's pro career is now well underway as a Stars prospect. Before his rookie season in 2025-26, the left-shot defenseman had previously played one professional game, making his AHL debut on Apr. 20, 2024 vs Manitoba as a teenager. Bertucci played the first three seasons of his OHL career with the Flint Firebirds, before finishing his junior career in 2024-25 with the Barrie Colts, where he served as an alternate captain. He also boasted 27 points (5g, 22a) in 38 OHL playoff contests.

2025-26

Luke Krys returned in January from an off-season injury that forced him to miss the first 32 games of the 2025-26 season. After making his season debut on Jan. 7, 2026 at Grand Rapids, he played all 40 of the Stars' remaining games. Krys quickly made his presence known, putting together a four-game point streak from Jan. 14-21, 2026, and posted a two-point game on Jan. 30, 2026 against Henderson. The right-shot defenseman scored in back-to-back games Mar. 25, 2026 at San Jose and Mar. 27, 2026 at Bakersfield, before finishing the season with a goal and an assist Apr. 18 vs Rockford in the finale. The Ridgefield, Connecticut native played in all five Calder Cup Playoff games and chipped in two assists.

CAREER NOTES

Two years into his pro career, Krys has appeared in 113 games for Texas and has proven himself to be a reliable right-shot option for the organization entering the first season of a two-year extension signed last summer. As a rookie in 2024-25, Krys had 17 points (3g, 14a) in 61 games, before appearing in 13 Calder Cup Playoff games during the team's deep run. He originally joined the Stars late in the 2023-24 campaign on an amateur tryout and skated in 12 regular-season games and five postseason contests. Krys played three seasons at Brown University, before transferring to Providence College for his senior season in 2023-24.

2025-26

Ben Gleason's eighth pro season was spent in Des Moines, Iowa with the Iowa Wild, the AHL affiliate of the Minnesota Wid. The left-shot defenseman compiled 22 points (2-20=22) over 59 games for Iowa, placing second in scoring among Wild rearguards. Last season, Gleason earned multiple points in four games, while three helpers in two of those contests. The Ortonville, Michigan native enjoyed coming back to Texas last season, scoring both of his goals at the H-E-B Center at Cedar Park.

CAREER NOTES

Ben Gleason returns to the Lone Star State for his sixth season with Texas after spending his first five seasons in pro hockey with the organization. The 28-year-old defenseman signed with Texas out of the OHL, and quickly rose the rankings among Stars defenseman. He ranks second in multiple categories among defenseman in franchise history, including goals, assists, and points. After five seasons in Texas, Gleason spent time in Bakersfield and Iowa over the last two seasons, before making his return for the 2026-27 campaign.

2025-26

Kyle Burroughs arrives in Texas with a wealth of experience in the AHL and NHL through his first 12 professional seasons. The right-shot defenseman spent the 2025-26 campaign with the AHL's Ontario Reign, posting seven points (1g, 6a) in 18 games during an injury-shortened year.

CAREER NOTES

He spent the first year of his time in Los Angeles exclusively in the NHL with the Kings, skating in 33 contests in 2024-25. After beginning his career in the New York Islanders system, primarily with the AHL's Bridgeport Sound Tigers, Burroughs reached the NHL in 2020-21 with the Colorado Avalanche, spent the next two seasons with the Vancouver Canucks, and played a career-best 73 games in 2023-24 with the San Jose Sharks. In total, the Vancouver, British Columbia native has skated in 201 NHL games and 342 AHL contests. Prior to turning pro, he played four full seasons with the Regina Pats in the WHL from 2011-15, serving as the team's captain the last two years. He also captained Bridgeport during the COVID-shortened 2019-20 season.

2025-26

Justin Ertel spent the entirety of his second professional season with Texas, where he compiled seven points (2g, 5a) in 44 games. He notched his first point of the campaign with an assist on opening night Oct. 10, 2025 vs Grand Rapids. The winger scored his first goal of the season Jan. 13, 2026 against Coachella Valley and netted a third period equalizer in a Stars win Feb. 7, 2026 vs Manitoba. The Kitchener, Ontario native ran together a three-game assist streak from Feb. 20-27, 2026 to match the longest streak of his young career.

CAREER NOTES

Originally selected six picks after teammate Ayrton Martino in the third round of the 2021 NHL Draft by Dallas, Ertel turned pro ahead of the 2024-25 season and spent the first half of the year with the ECHL's Idaho Steelheads, where he totaled eight points (4g, 4a) in 21 games. He earned a mid-season call-up to the AHL where he finished his rookie season with Texas, compiling nine points (2g, 7a) in 25 contests. He also chipped in two assists in three Calder Cup Playoff games, including a helper in Game Six of the Western Conference Finals on June 8, 2025 at Abbotsford. Ertel previously spent two seasons with the OHL's North Bay Battalion from 2022-24 following one year at Cornell University in 2021-22.

2025-26

Harrison Scott skated in all 72 regular-season games as a rookie in 2025-26, making him one of just three Ironmen on the Stars roster. The center tallied two points on opening weekend and put together a four-game point streak (2g, 4a) in late-November. He recorded his first career two-goal game on Nov. 29, 2025 at Coachella Valley, his first pro game in his home state of California. Scott scored his first short-handed goal Jan. 23, 2026 at Rockford, compiled another four-game point streak from Jan. 17-23, 2026, and scored in three straight games from Apr. 3-7, 2026, which included another two-goal game Apr. 3, 2026 vs Chicago. The San Jose, California native ranked second among Texas rookies in points (32) and goals (18), while leading the group of first-years with 122 shots on goal.

CAREER NOTES

So far in his pro career, Scott has played in every regular-season and playoff game since signing an amateur tryout late in the 2024-25 campaign. He appeared in six games in April 2025 and suited up in all 14 Calder Cup Playoff games during the team's deep run in 2025, scoring his first pro goal June 8, 2025 at Abbotsford in Game Six of the Western Conference Finals. Scott joined the Stars after finishing his senior season at the University of Maine, where he helped the Black Bears win the Hockey East Championship and a berth in the NCAA Tournament, earning a place on the Hockey East All-Tournament Team. He spent two years at Bentley University in Watham, Massachusetts, before transferring to Maine for his final two college seasons.

2025-26

Matthew Seminoff enjoyed a breakout season in 2025-26, leading the Stars in goal scoring (24) and ranking second in points (50). The third-year-pro more than doubled his point total from his first two pro seasons combined and earned a two-year contract extension last summer. Seminoff scored on opening night Oct. 10, 2025 vs Grand Rapids, but really took off after earning a place on the top line after Thanksgiving. He scored twice on his 22nd birthday Dec. 27, 2025 at Rockford for his first career two-goal game, and replicated that performance three more times with two-goal games Feb. 18, 2026 at Milwaukee, Mar. 8, 2026 at Chicago, and Mar. 14, 2026 vs Bakersfield. The Leesburg, Virginia native finished the campaign with 13 multi-point games, including three different three-point outings, and he paced the team with nine power play goals.

CAREER NOTES

Still just 22-years-old at the start of the 2026-27 season, Seminoff has already played 198 AHL games through his first three seasons in Texas. He turned pro at 19 and led all Stars rookies with 70 games played during the 2024-25 campaign. The forward has also appeared in 23 Calder Cup Playoff games, including 11 during the team's run to the 2025 Western Conference Finals. Prior to turning pro, Seminoff spent four seasons with the WHL's Kamloops Blazers, where he posted 170 points (73g, 97a) in 196 games and earned a place on the WHL's Second All-Star Team in 2022-23.

2025-26

Last season, his 13th pro season, McKenzie earned several milestones. First, he reached 700 career AHL games on Feb. 15, 2026 at Grand Rapids and played his 800th professional game (including 99 NHL games) on Feb. 18, 2026 at Milwaukee. He scored his 200th AHL goal on Jan. 23, 2026 at Rockford, tallied his 500th AHL point Mar. 14, 2026 vs Bakersfield, and chipped in his 300th AHL assist Mar. 21, 2026 at Henderson.

CAREER NOTES

Curtis McKenzie has solidified himself as one of the Texas Stars' all-time greats and enters his 14th professional season and 11th with the Stars organization in 2026-27. The captain ranks near the top of several franchise leaderboards. McKenzie ranks second in games played (567), goals (164), assists (237) and points (401), and holds the team record for power-play goals (55) and penalty minutes (703). Since breaking onto the scene as a rookie in 2013-14, McKenzie has been one of the most impactful players to call Cedar Park home. He won the AHL's Dudley (Red) Garrett Memorial Award as Most Outstanding Rookie, was named to the league's All-Rookie Team, and helped the Stars win the 2014 Calder Cup. He also captained the Stars to the Calder Cup Finals in 2018, before making a third trip to the Finals in 2019 as a member of the Chicago Wolves. McKenzie played the COVID-shortened 2020-21 campaign with the Utica Comets, before returing to the Lone Star State. The Golden, British Columbia native reclaimed the captain's "C" upon his return in 2021-22 and has worn it ever since, leading Texas back to the playoffs each of the last five years. He was selected as a playing captain at the 2025 AHL All-Star Classic in Palm Desert, represented Canada at the 2024-25 Spengler Cup, and named the AHL's 2024-25 Yanick Dupre Memorial Award winner for his efforts in the community.

2025-26

Cameron Hughes brought his game to a whole new level during a memorable year in 2025-26. The 29-year-old veteran posted a career-high 51 assists and 68 points in 65 games and earned a spot on the AHL's Second All-Star Team. Also a participant in the AHL's All-Star Classic for the first time, Hughes finished the season 18 points ahead of his next closest teammate, boasting 21 multi-point games, seven three-point games, and a four-point outing (1g, 3a) on Feb. 28, 2026 vs San Diego. His seven-game point streak (4g, 11a) from Jan. 14-31, 2026 was the second-longest on the team behind Trey Taylor's eight game streak during the same time frame. The Edmonton, Alberta native earned his first NHL call-up in five years, joining Dallas on Mar. 31, 2026 at Boston, coincidentilly the team that drafted Hughes. He scored his first career NHL goal Apr. 9, 2026 vs Minnesota.

CAREER NOTES

One of the AHL's top active veteran players, Hughes entered the 2026-27 campaign with 458 regular-season games of experience and 67 postseason contests. Now in his third year with the Stars, Hughes originally signed as a free agent in the summer of 2024 and quickly established himself as one of Texas' best players in 2024-25. He also added 19 points (4g, 15a) in 14 Calder Cup Playoff games and his 15 assists were a team record for a single postseason run. From 2022-24, Hughes played for Coachella Valley, leading the Firebirds to back-to-back Western Conference Championships and Calder Cup Finals appearances. He spent his first four seasons as a Boston Bruins prospect playing for Providence, and has matched or increased his point total each of the last five seasons. Prior to turning pro, Hughes played four college seasons at the University of Wisconsin.

2025-26

Ayrton Martino suited up in 41 games for the Texas Stars as a rookie in 2025-26, including 25 contests in 2026. The forward started the season with the ECHL's Idaho Steelheads, posting four points (2g, 2a) in three games on opening weekend, before earning a permanent call-up to the AHL. He picked up his first point, an assist, on Oct. 24, 2025 vs Iowa, setting up his former college teammate Trey Taylor for the goal. Martino then scored his first AHL goal Nov. 3, 2025 at Manitoba, the eventual game-winner. The Toronto, Ontario native picked up his first multi-point game on Mar. 28, 2026 at Bakersfield and finished his first pro season with 12 points (2g, 10a).

CAREER NOTES

A standout senior season at Clarkson University in 2024-25 led Martino to sign his entry-level contract with Dallas and join Texas in March 2025 on an amateur tryout, where he appeared in his first four professional contests. His 51 points (25g, 26a) in 39 games for Clarkson as a senior made him a finalist for the Hobey Baker Award, which is presented each year to the best player in college hockey. He was named an NCAA First-Team All-American, selected to the ECAC Conference's First All-Star Team and All-Tournament Team, and chosen as the league's Player of the Year. From 2021-25, Martino averaged over a point per game at Clarkson, totaling 145 points (50g, 95a) in 144 contests. He was named to the ECAC All-Rookie Team in 2021-22 as a freshman and selected to the ECAC Third All-Star Team in 2022-23 as a sophomore.

2025-26

Jack Becker made the most of an increased role in his second full AHL season in 2025-26, smashing career-highs in every category. The right-shot forward appeared in 71 of the team's 72 games, ranked third in points (14g, 26a), and set personal bests for goals (14), assists (26), points, plus/minus rating (+16), and game-winning goals (4). Becker sparked the team's New Year's Eve overtime win at Iowa with his second career two-goal night, recorded his first three-point game (1g, 2a) on Jan. 23, 2026 at Rockford, and posted a career-long, six-game point streak (2g, 7a) from Jan. 23 - Feb. 13, 2026. The Dellwood, Minnesota native had seven multi-point games and added a goal in the team's playoff series against Chicago.

CAREER NOTES

After first joining the Stars on a professional tryout in January 2024, Becker has been a reliable mainstay up and down the lineup for Texas ever since. The 6-foot-3 forward skated in 70 games during the 2024-25 campaign, his first full AHL season after his first two pro seasons were primarily spent with the ECHL's Idaho Steelheads. Since turning pro, he has 183 AHL games of experience and 99 ECHL games, in addition to 24 Calder Cup Playoff games. He chipped in four points (2g, 2a) in 14 postseason games during the Stars' 2025 run to the Western Conference Finals. Becker played four college seasons at the University of Michigan, before transferring to Arizona State University for his fifth year of eligibility. His father, Russ, attended Michigan Tech, where he was once defensive partners with Texas Stars General Manager Scott White.

2025-26

Arno Tiefensee began his first pro season in North America with the ECHL's Idaho Steelheads, where he rattled off a six-game winning streak in November to earn a call-up to the AHL at the end of the month. The rookie goaltender joined Texas for the team's southern California road trip and stopped 25 of 26 shots faced to win his AHL debut Nov. 30, 2025 at Ontario. He went 3-1-0 before the holiday break and also won his first two starts of 2026. Tiefensee posted a season-high 42 saves on Jan. 4, 2026 in a 4-1 win against Milwaukee, and earned his first North American pro shutout with a 24-save showing on Jan. 23, 2026 at Rockford. The Weisswasser, Germany native finished the campaign 10-7-0 in 20 appearances with Texas and 7-1-2 in 11 games with Idaho.

CAREER NOTES

Prior to joining the Stars, Tiefensee spent three full seasons with Adler Mannheim in the Deutsch Eishockey Liga (DEL), the top professional league in Germany. He won 19 games in 2023-24 and again in 2024-25, and suited up in 29 DEL postseason contests. Additionally, Tiefensee has represented his home country on the international stage on several occasions earning a gold medal at the 2018-19 U18 World Junior Championship and participating in the U20 World Junior Championship in 2020-21.

2025-26

The Traverse City, Michigan native was a first-time AHL All-Star in 2024-25 with Syracuse and shared the Harry Holmes Memorial Award as the AHL's Best Goaltending Duo. He also won the AHL's Goaltender of the Month honor for February 2026, one month before Stars goalie Remi Poirier won the award, thanks to a 6-0-0 record as part of a career-best, eight-game winning streak.

CAREER NOTES

Brandon Halverson joins the Stars for his 10th professional season and looks to sure up the organization's depth chart at an important position. The veteran goaltender spent the last three seasons in the Tampa Bay Lightning system, where he reinvigorated his career with the AHL's Syracuse Crunch. Halverson appeared in 43 regular-season contests each of the last two years with the Crunch and boasted a 53-25-24 overall record in 100 games with the club. He also saw game action in three NHL contests will the Lightning, after beginning his comeback with the team's ECHL affiliate, Orlando, during the 2023-24 slate. Halverson did not play anywhere in 2021-22 and jumped overseas to play the 2022-23 season with Bayreuth in the second-tier German professional league. As a former second round pick of the New York Rangers, he started his career with the AHL's Hartford Wolf Pack and ECHL's Greenville Swamp Rabbits during his time as a Rangers prospect. He also spent half of a season with the ECHL's Maine Mariners, before appearing in a handful of games for the Norfolk Admirals and AHL's Tucson Roadrunners during the COVID-shortened 2019-20 season.

2025-26

Kyle Looft finished his second pro season in 2025-26 and contributed nine points (4g, 5a) in 37 games for the Stars. The left-shot defenseman scored twice on Nov. 7, 2025 against Manitoba and was named the game's first star for his first career multi-goal game. He added goals Nov. 26, 2025 vs Grand Rapids and Dec. 7, 2025 at San Diego. His four goals was a new career high and he achieved the benchmark just 14 games into the season. Looft battled a few nagging injuries, but tallied four assists in his final seven games of the campaign, including a two-assist game Mar. 8 at Chicago. The Mankato, Minnesota native also skated in three Calder Cup Playoff games during the Central Division Semifinals against Chicago.

CAREER NOTES

After skating in 57 games as a rookie in 2024-25, Looft skated in all 14 Calder Cup Playoff games during the team's run to the Western Conference Finals. He originally joined the Stars on an amateur tryout late in the 2023-24 campaign at the end of his collegiate career, appearing in two regular-season games and six playoff contests. Prior to turning pro, Looft spent five years at Bemidji State University, where he captained the Beavers his final two seasons. He was named the CCHA's Defenseman of the Year, Best Defensive Defenseman, and was selected to the league's First All-Star Team in 2023-24 with the Beavers, who won the CCHA Championship in the regular season.

2025-26

Artem Shlaine turned an AHL contract in 2025-26 into an off-season NHL two-way contract heading into his second pro season, thanks to an impressive first campaign. The rookie center scored his first pro goal Oct. 18, 2025 at Milwaukee and provided the team's first game-winner of the season Nov. 2, 2025, when he scored in overtime at Manitoba. Shlaine notched his first two-goal and three-point game on Nov. 30, 2025 at Ontario, and enjoyed a five-game point streak (3g, 2a) from Jan. 18-31, 2026. In total, he recorded three different two-goal games, seven multi-point performances, and two separate three-point showings. The Moscow, Russia native ranked second on the team with 19 goals and paced all rookies with 38 points, before scoring three goals in five Calder Cup Playoff games, including the overtime-winner in Game Four of the Division Semifinals at Chicago.

CAREER NOTES

An alumni of the prestigious hockey prep school Shattuck St. Mary's in Fairbault, Minnesota, Shlaine attended the University of Connecticut for two seasons, before transferring to Northern Michigan University for his junior and senior years. He played his graduate senior season at Arizona State University, where he earned recognition on the NCHC's First All-Star Team and All-Tournament Team, and was chosen to the NCAA's Second All-American Team. Shlaine signed with the Stars at the conclusion of the Sun Devils' season and appeared in his first six pro contests for Texas in April 2025.
